Thursday evening, Mrs. Ackerman claims, he became very sick from drinking too much beer. With a desire to relieve him she went to the drug stare and purchased is cents' worth of anodyne, a harmless sedative for the stomach. She put a little of this in his beer, she said, only to find that her husband believed she was trying to poison him.

Ackerman went to consult a physician about the cramps in his stemach, visiting baster Gibson of Jefferson and Clark avenues, and the dector discovered that the interior of his mouth was badly burned, apparently by carboile acid.

The smell of carboile acid was also apparent on the man's clothes, but the doctor said yesterday that he could not say positively that the hums in the mouth were caused by that acid. Ackerman wished the doctor to give him a statement to the effect that an attempt had been made to poison him, but the latter decilined.

The Provencheres are well known in St.

Louis, and are one of the oldest French femilies in the city. The mother of Mrs. Provenchere is Mrs. M. T. Douglas of No. 710 North Spring avenue. Her grandfather was President Thomas Monroe, and Gen-eral Robert E. Lee, the idol of Southern-cer was ber mele. eral Robert E. Lee, the idol of Southern-ers, was her uncle.

The marriage between Perdinand Proven-chere and his wife occurred eleven years ago in this city. Miss Mary Douglas, as she was ther, was considered a belle.

Nominated for Governor of Massachusetts by Democrats.

Boston, Oct. 2.—Robert Treat Paine, Jr. Boston, Oct. 2.—Robert Treat Palne, Jr., will again head the ticket which the Democrats of this State will be asked to support at the coming election, having received the nomination for Governor at the State Convention held in Faneuli Hall today. The remainder of the ticket follows:

Lientemant Governor, Honorable John B. O'Doinell of Northampton.

Secretary of State. General Luther B. Stevenson of Hinsham.

Auditor, E. Jerry Brown of Brocton.

Treasurer, John L. Chalifoux of Lowell, Attorney General, John C. Crosby of Pittsfield.

The platform adopted declares the dominant question to be the continuance of government by consent of the governed; declares the Porto Rico law is an outrage on the liberties of the people; calls for a free constitution for Cuba, and in the Philippines a speedy restoration of independence; opposes any alliance, open or secret, with any foreign nation; condemns company stores in the coal fields; condemns useless commissions in the State; calls for reductions in railroad rates and more power for the Rullroad Commissioner; calls for the initiative and referendum, also an inheritance tax and municipal ownership of public utilities, and condemns the Altany lease as a robbery of the State.

An innovation was the reading of the Declaration of Independence previous to beginning the work of the convention, this preliminary being deemed fitting, in view of the fact that this convention was held on the anniversary of the first election of Jefferson.
